

] pexip [

Video conferencing as it should be.

Empower your organization with face-to-face communication,
no matter the location or technology.

Pexip as-a-Service

The Easiest Way to Future-Proof your Video Conferencing Investment

The easiest way to start using Pexip is to subscribe to it as-a-service. Simply select the plan that best suits your needs and subscribe to the number of licenses your organization needs. You will be ready to go in no time with all the capabilities and features you require. There's no need to invest in and manage additional hardware or appliances, and you will have the ability to easily scale up or down based on the changing needs of your organization. Pexip as-a-service—videoconferencing that works the way you do.

Unlimited video and audio calling on a dedicated global quality-assured video network.

A cost-effective and high quality video solution provided through smart roaming.

Quick and easy access to video meetings via the mobile app or QR code functionality from mobile, desktop, web browsers or videoconferencing systems.

Full call control and management features when you register your videoconferencing systems to the service.

Interoperability solutions for Microsoft Teams and Google Hangouts Meets, as well as videoconferencing systems from a variety of manufacturers and platform providers.

For more information, see pexip.com/video-meetings

] pexip [